

Newsweek

April 18, 2005

newsweek.msnbc.com

Beyoncé

STILETTOS

You're your own woman and are likely to be self-possessed. You can stand on your own two feet (even if your heels are a little wobbly).

SHOES Your Sole Mate

Your shoes weren't made only for walking—fashion writer Meghan Cleary thinks they also do the talking ... about you. In her new book, "The Perfect Fit," she explains why your soul is in your sole. What's in your closet?

—LISA HELEM

Mischa Barton

MARY JANES

You're prone to order and tidiness. Your life's as clean as your MJ's.

Sarah Jessica Parker

KNEE-HIGH BOOTS

You're well read and kind. There's a good chance that you're loaded, too.

Madonna

RUNNING SHOES

You're bubbly yet businesslike. And quick on your feet.

Avril Lavigne

WORK BOOTS

Flirtation? Not really. Agitation? Rock on! You might organize a political protest.